Joan Blackburn is a Pensacola, FL, artist, teacher, and juror/judge who taught for 14 years for Pensacola Junior College in their Continuing Ed Series. She retired in 2005 to devote more time to teaching and exploring her own journey into the field of art. She now teaches workshops twice a year in Pensacola, and will teach two weeks in July, 2012, on Experimental Water-Media. Her forte is in teaching design and composition. She excels in the evaluation of students' work and assisting with developing unfinished pieces.

Joan has two paintings published in a Ebook by Sue St. John, "A Walk into Abstracts, Vol III." She has written a soon-to-be published book, "Exploring the Abstract."
